

Porto 0,75 €

Adruk Lopo, a respected monk
from Lithang Monastery

拯救人權

Fight for Human Rights!

His Excellency LIU Zhenmin

Permanent Representative of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations

11, chemin de Surville
CH-1213 Petit-Lancy (Geneva)
Schweiz

Porto 0,75 €

Porto 0,75 €

Adruk Lopo, a respected monk
from Lithang Monastery

拯救人權

Fight for Human Rights!

Chen Wenqing Jianchazhang

Sichuansheng Renmin
Jianchayuan

Chief Procurator of Sichuan Province

51 Renminzhonglu Erduan
Qingyangqu

Chengdushi 61001

Sichuansheng

People's Republic of China

Volksrepublik China

Porto 0,75 €

Adruk Lopo, a respected monk
from Lithang Monastery

拯救人權

Fight for Human Rights!

Liu Xiaoming

Ambassador of the People's Republic of China to the United Kingdom

31 Portland Place
London W1B 1QD
England

Adruk Lopo, a respected monk
from Lithang Monastery

拯救人權

Fight for Human Rights!

Ms. Naveneethem Pillai

UN High Commissioner for Human Rights

Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights

8-14 Avenue de la Paix

CH-1211 Geneva-10

Schweiz

Dear Procurator,

I am deeply disturbed and outraged to learn that Adruk Lopo (Lupo), a 50-year old Tibetan monk of Lithang Monastery, who has been leading the call for the release of his uncle Rongye Adrak (Rongji Azha), has been sentenced to ten years in prison for doing nothing more than exercising his basic right to free speech. Adruk was unjustly convicted of "splitting the country" by the People's Court in Dartsedo in Eastern Tibet. This respected monk is an innocent man and must be released immediately.

By persecuting Adruk Lopo for his peaceful act, you are violating his fundamental right to freely express his views without fear of punishment. According to Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights "every person has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

Your sentencing of Adruk Lopo and his companions will be viewed by the outside world as proof that the Chinese government does not respect the fundamental rights of the Tibetan people to freely express their opinion and expression as enshrined under Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

If China is ever to be respected as leader on the global stage, you will need to demonstrate to the world that your respect for the rights of the Tibetan people, as set out even in your own laws, extends to more than mere rhetoric. Your current actions reflect nothing more than that of an occupying power brutally suppressing any dissent expressed by the Tibetan people and your international image is consequently tarnished.

In recognition of the concerned individuals human rights, we urge you to quash the sentences of Runggye Adak, Adruk Lopo, Kenkhyen and Luthok and release them immediately. Yours faithfully,

Name, Address:

Dear Madam,

I am deeply disturbed and outraged to learn that Adruk Lopo (Lupo), a 50-year old Tibetan monk of Lithang Monastery, who has been leading the call for the release of his uncle Rongye Adrak (Rongji Azha), has been sentenced to ten years in prison for doing nothing more than exercising his basic right to free speech. Adruk was unjustly convicted of "splitting the country" by the People's Court in Dartsedo in Eastern Tibet. This respected monk is an innocent man and must be released immediately.

By persecuting Adruk Lopo for his peaceful act, the Chinese authorities are violating his fundamental right to freely express his views without fear of punishment. According to Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights "every person has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

The sentencing of Adruk Lopo and his companions will be viewed by the outside world as proof that the Chinese government does not respect the fundamental rights of the Tibetan people to freely express their opinion and expression as enshrined under Article 19 of the UDHR.

If China is ever to be respected as leader on the global stage, she will need to demonstrate to the world that her respect for the rights of the Tibetan people, as set out even in her own laws, extends to more than mere rhetoric. The current actions of the Chinese reflect nothing more than that of an occupying power brutally suppressing any dissent expressed by the Tibetan people. whereby their international image is consequently tarnished.

In recognition of the concerned individuals human rights, we urge you to appeal to the Chinese government to quash the sentences of Adruk Lopo and his companions and release them immediately. Yours faithfully,

Name, Address:

Your Excellency,

I am deeply disturbed and outraged to learn that Adruk Lopo (Lupo), a 50-year old Tibetan monk of Lithang Monastery, who has been leading the call for the release of his uncle Rongye Adrak (Rongji Azha), has been sentenced to ten years in prison for doing nothing more than exercising his basic right to free speech. Adruk was unjustly convicted of "splitting the country" by the People's Court in Dartsedo in Eastern Tibet. This respected monk is an innocent man and must be released immediately.

By persecuting Adruk Lopo for his peaceful act, you are violating his fundamental right to freely express his views without fear of punishment. According to Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights "every person has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

Your sentencing of Adruk Lopo and his companions will be viewed by the outside world as proof that the Chinese government does not respect the fundamental rights of the Tibetan people to freely express their opinion and expression as enshrined under Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

If China is ever to be respected as leader on the global stage, you will need to demonstrate to the world that your respect for the rights of the Tibetan people, as set out even in your own laws, extends to more than mere rhetoric. Your current actions reflect nothing more than that of an occupying power brutally suppressing any dissent expressed by the Tibetan people and your international image is consequently tarnished.

In recognition of the concerned individuals human rights, we urge you to quash the sentences of Runggye Adak, Adruk Lopo, Kenkhyen and Luthok and release them immediately. Yours faithfully,

Name, Address:

Your Excellency,

I am deeply disturbed and outraged to learn that Adruk Lopo (Lupo), a 50-year old Tibetan monk of Lithang Monastery, who has been leading the call for the release of his uncle Rongye Adrak (Rongji Azha), has been sentenced to ten years in prison for doing nothing more than exercising his basic right to free speech. Adruk was unjustly convicted of "splitting the country" by the People's Court in Dartsedo in Eastern Tibet. This respected monk is an innocent man and must be released immediately.

By persecuting Adruk Lopo for his peaceful act, you are violating his fundamental right to freely express his views without fear of punishment. According to Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights "every person has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media and regardless of frontiers."

Your sentencing of Adruk Lopo and his companions will be viewed by the outside world as proof that the Chinese government does not respect the fundamental rights of the Tibetan people to freely express their opinion and expression as enshrined under Article 19 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

If China is ever to be respected as leader on the global stage,, you will need to demonstrate to the world that your respect for the rights of the Tibetan people, as set out even in your own laws, extends to more than mere rhetoric. Your current actions reflect nothing more than that of an occupying power brutally suppressing any dissent expressed by the Tibetan people and your international image is consequently tarnished.

In recognition of the concerned individuals human rights, we urge you to quash the sentences of Runggye Adak, Adruk Lopo, Kenkhyen and Luthok and release them immediately. Yours faithfully,

Name, Address: