Your Excellency,

洛桑旦增

I am writing to express my concern about the Tibetan prisoner of conscience Lobsang Tenzin (Luosang Danzeng), a former student of the Tibet University, who is in his forties. He was arrested in 1988 and sentenced to life imprisonment. In 1994, due to his good behaviour, Lobsang's sentence was reduced to 18 years imprisonment. Lobsang was serving his term in Powo Tramo Labour Camp in Kongpo (Prefecture Nyingtri) for a long time, lateron, in 2005 he was transferred to the new prison in Chushul district of TAR.

Reportedly, Lobsang is in very poor health . He has a damaged kidney due to which his body has become numb making it difficult for him to stand. It seems that by now he is so sick, that his very life is in danger. Moreover he is suffering from diabetes due to which his eyesight has weakened sharply causing blindness at times.

We call for the immediate release of Lobsang Tenzin in view of his precarious state of health on medical parole or to give him at least access to medical treatment while detained in line with international human rights standards on the treatment of prisoners.

We further demand that an independent human rights monitoring organization be permitted to visit him and other political prisoners in Tibet.

Finally I urge the People's Republic of China to respect freedom of thought, conscience and religion as stated in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the UN International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to which China is a party to. Thank you for giving full attention to this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Your Excellency,

洛桑旦增

Dear Madam,

洛桑旦增

I am writing to express my concern about the Tibetan prisoner of conscience Lobsang Tenzin, Luosang Danzeng, a former student of the Tibet University. He was first sentenced to death for the alleged murder of a policeman, then his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment due to international pressure. In 1994, due to his good behaviour, Lobsang's sentence was reduced to 18 years imprisonment. Lobsang was serving his term in Powo Tramo Labour Camp in Kongpo (Prefecture Nyingtri) for a long time, 2005 he was transferred to a new prison in Chushul district of TAR.

We call for the immediate release of Lobsang Tenzin in view of his precarious state of health on medical parole or to give him at least access to medical treatment while detained in line with international human rights standards on the treatment of prisoners.

Please take up the case of Lobsang Tenzin with the Chinese government and get the assurance that he will receive th necessary medical treatmen. Also an independent human rights monitoring organization should be permitted to visit him and other political prisoners in Tibet.

The Chinese government should respect freedom of thought, conscience and religion as stated in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the UN International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights to which China is a party to, yours faithfully,
